

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
Bill 26-03

Submitted by Senator Nick Pounders and Chairwoman Angela Staggs

10/1/26

- I. This Constitutional Amendment shall be known and cited as CAB 26-03 Mandatory Internal Training
- II. The purpose of this bill is to mandate internal training processes specific to an SGA member's outlined responsibilities and to mandate a general knowledge presentation which is to be delivered at SGA Retreat. This presentation is to include information from the SGA Constitution, Code of Laws, Robert's Rules of Order, and internal procedures. This will act as the primary way of informing every SGA senator and executive officer of their responsibilities in SGA.
- III. Article VIII, Section 4, currently reads:
There is not currently an Article VIII, Section 4.

Article VIII, Section 5, currently reads:
There is not currently an Article VIII, Section 5.

Article IX, Section 2, currently reads:
There is not currently an Article IX, Section 2.

Article IX, Section 3, currently reads:
There is not currently an Article IX, Section 3.
- IV. Article VIII, Section 4 now shall read:
At each standing committee's first meeting of the year, the committee chairperson must present their committee's section of the Code of Laws. The chairperson must confirm to the Vice President when a committee member has participated in the presentation.

Article VIII, Section 5 now shall read:
In the event that a committee member is not present at the first committee meeting, they must be given this information by the committee chair.

Article IX, Section 2 now shall read:
The SGA President is responsible for meeting with all members of the executive council, either in-person or virtually, to discuss the specific responsibilities of their respective roles. This will occur during the summer session.

Article IX, Section 3 "SGA Retreat" now shall read:

- A. The SGA Vice President must oversee the planning and coordination of the annual SGA Retreat with the assistance of the other executive officers.
- B. Every member of the SGA Student Senate must participate in a general knowledge presentation at SGA Retreat regarding the foundational aspects of the SGA, which is to include information from the Constitution, Code of Laws, Robert's Rules of Order, and other internal procedures.
- C. In the event that a senator is not present at SGA retreat, the SGA Vice President must present the information detailed above during a senator training meeting. This applies to all senators elected and appointed throughout the entire academic year.

- V. This bill will become law upon the ratification by majority (2/3) vote of the University of North Alabama Student Government Association Senate, approval by the Student Government Association President and Vice President, and the subsequent approval of the student body by a referendum vote.
